Division Life Member Award

To recognize important contributions in various functions over a period of at least ten years by a member who has shown dedication beyond normal expectations to the Canadian Ski Patrol. A recipient should have received the highest award available in his/her own zone and hold an NAA and CSP Award at the national level. The recipient must have provided leadership or major contributions that have aided the growth of the Canadian Ski Patrol. Life membership is the highest honour the division can bestow on a member or former member.
